

Greetings from Your New ISPA Junior Director

Hello ISPA members,

My name is Bill Enockson, and I'm honored to serve you as the new ISPA Junior Director representing Sioux City. Thank you for the opportunity—I'm excited to support the board and our membership statewide.

I come from a strong Sioux City law enforcement family. My father retired in 2012, as a Sergeant after a 40-year career, and my mother has spent her career in juvenile detention and currently serves as Director of the Y.E.S. Center in Cherokee. Public service has always been a part of my life.

I graduated from Sioux City West in 2007 and attended Iowa State University. While in college, I began working as a dispatcher and quickly realized law enforcement was where I belonged. I earned my degree in Management Information Systems and continued dispatching for six years before joining the Sioux City Police Department in 2014.

Since then, I've served in the A.S.A.P. Unit (OWI enforcement), the Special Investigations Unit, and have been a member of the Sioux City SWAT team since 2020. I've served as an FTO since 2018 and hold several instructorships, including Vehicle CQB/High-Threat Vehicle Engagements, Civil Unrest Response, Stop Sticks, PepperBall, and other less-lethal tools. I'm also a certified drone pilot.

Outside of work, I enjoy life with my wonderful wife, Jennifer, and our three boys, ages 5, 3, and 2. When not fighting to keep my sanity in a very loud household, I spend my free time doing various projects on my computer. I am currently learning the world of 3D printing, with my newest toy.

I previously served on our Local #7 board for six years, and I'm excited for the opportunity to serve the entire state as part of the ISPA Board.

Thank you for your trust and support.

Bill Enockson
